

Faith In Action

“Several months ago, my (widowed) mom received a warning letter from the City of Enid Code Enforcement to get the house painted. She is handicapped, requiring the use of a walker to get around. I moved to Enid to help but the amount of work needed was overwhelming to the point I wasn't sure where to begin.

Faith In Action, a mission group from First Baptist, came to us and told us we had been selected to have our house painted.

For free. Wow! They came Thursday and power washed the house. Sunday a whole group came to paint. That is all we were expecting, but no, this amazing group of people not only painted our house, they cleaned up the back yard, took down trees, trimmed trees and bushes and hauled off trash. You have no idea what a huge undertaking this was. The yard was completely overgrown - except for limited mowing. It was beyond one person's ability to tackle. I am not able to put into words my gratitude to this wonderful group who took on this huge project for a complete stranger and in the course of one day, they transformed our house from an embarrassment into a beautiful place again. The look on my mother's face when she saw all the work being done was amazing. I know I speak for Mom when I tell you "thank you" is inadequate to express our true thankfulness and appreciation. It is such a balm to the soul to know that good people DO exist and that God really does answer prayers.

I wanted the church to know how much we appreciate Faith in Action and how much you have been an example of God's Love!"

Please bring sides, desserts, salads and your lawn chairs.
